PRAYER

O God, you constantly give to the Church new witnesses of your love, we thank you for the gift laid down to us of the Venerable Father Romano Bottegal.
He was a Man and Monk became Prayer and consumed himself for You in the contemplation of the divine realities.
He lived as a poor and humble “Servant”, drawing from the mystery of the Cross and of Eucharist the secret to generous embracing of the suffering and his joyous endowment to the brothers promising an “eternal service” from heaven for them.
I beg you, Lord, glorify Father Romano and accord to us the grace we ask... by his intercession and that of the Most Holy Mary in filial abandon in you, who call everybody to your everlasting Happiness.
Amen.
